

CRU Camp Leader Fee Schedule v1.9

Having at least 1 leader to every 5 campers maximises relational ministry opportunities, but comes at a cost. Therefore, we ask volunteers to make a contribution towards their food, accommodation and some activities. This is typically less than 45% of the total cost to CRU for having them on camp, and less than 35% of the price charged to campers.

Breakdown of costs:

It costs approximately $450 for a leader to be on a standard residential camp, and approximately $120 for a standard day camp. This includes the cost of accommodation, food, buses to and from camp, any activities, the leader t-shirt, lanyards/ wristbands, training events and more. Costs vary slightly between camps depending on the activities, length of camp and campsite.

Approximate Breakdown of Leader Fee

Sponsorship or Part Payment:

If finances might prevent you from leading on camp we have a sponsorship fund available. Depending on your circumstances our generous donors can typically cover up to half the standard leader fee cost (this is flexible based on the circumstances). You can also apply to pay the leader fee across multiple payments.

If you would like to receive sponsorship or apply for part payment you can apply at the end of the registration form, at cruamps.com.au by searching "Volunteer Sponsorship" or send us an email at cruleaders@cru.edu.au to find out more.
